AN INSPIRING AFFAIR

Host Don Morrison, chief operating officer of Research in Motion, and his wife, Debbie

An exclusive group of Torontonians joined former U.S. vice-president Al Gore and Free the Children founders Marc and Craig Kielburger to celebrate the charity's recent youth empowerment event, We Day, in Kitchener-Waterloo, Ont. The intimate dinner – hosted by Research in Motion's COO, Don Morrison, and his lovely wife, Debbie, at their Toronto home – was an elegant affair infused with good feeling. Guests at the upbeat soiree sipped cocktails and noshed on small bites from caterers Daniel et Daniel before sitting down to break bread. The evening's lively conversations centred around the inspiring work that the Kielburger brothers are doing around the world. Me to we, indeed! – TARA HENLEY
