Policy:

Daniel et Daniel Catering & Events is committed to excellence in serving all customers including people with disabilities. Exceptions to this policy may be made only with the approval of the owners.

The Management of Daniel et Daniel is vitally interested in the Health and safety of its workers. Protection of workers from injury or occupational disease is a major continuing objective. Daniel et Daniel will make every effort to provide a safe, healthy work environment. All supervisors and workers must be dedicated to continuing objective of reducing risk and injury.

Dave Stratton, Guillaume Clairet, and Daniel Clairet as employers are ultimately responsible for the health and safety. As owners, we give you our personal promise that every reasonable precaution will be taken for the protection of the workers.

Supervisors and Managers will be held accountable for the health and safety of workers under their supervision. Supervisors are responsible to ensure that machinery and equipment are safe and that workers work in compliance with established safe work practices and procedures. Workers must receive adequate training in their specific tasks to protect their health and safety.

Every worker must protect his or her own health safety by working in compliance of the law and with safe work practices and procedures established and required by the employer. It is the best interest of all workplace parties to consider health and safety in every activity. Commitment to health and safety must form an integral part of this organization from the owners to the workers.
